

My kids and I listen to K-LOVE everyday. It is a positive influence on them and if the FM translator is taken off, they may not have K-LOVE which means they would listen to music that is certainly not in the best interest of society. We all need to have the choice of something good to listen to that doesn't deal with violence or sex. Thank you. Kelli Burkes